

PLC POST April 2019

Dear PLC Families,

Spring is here and we are busy as bees! April and May bring many family friendly events, so please check out the calendar to the right. Your child's classroom teacher and room parents will communicate specifics concerning Easter Celebrations and egg hunts on April 11th.

When we return from Spring Break, parents will have the opportunity to hear their children's sweet voices as they put on an adorable spring concert April 25th. Directly following the concert will be our family picnic. PLC will supply hot dogs and mac n' cheese. Be on the lookout for a sign up, as we will fill in the gaps pot lock style. The Scholastic Book Fair will also be set up and open at this time! It is guaranteed to be a fun evening for everyone!

As we celebrate Easter, we remember Jesus died for our us, so we could be blessed and our sins forgiven. Our students will be exploring the story of Easter over the next few weeks in chapel and their classrooms.

If you need a home for Easter, Leesburg Community Church will host Easter services at 9 and 11 am, as well as a Good Friday evening service. We would love to see you at LCC on Easter!

Blessings,
PLC Staff
